

BOARD AND COMMISSION OPENINGS VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Are you interested in becoming more involved in the happenings of your City? Are you interested in volunteering some of your time to become more involved in your local government and its processes? The City of Whitehouse is seeking volunteers to fill upcoming vacancies on several of its Boards and Commissions. The purpose/duties required of each of these boards/commissions are as follows:

Planning and Zoning Commission: The Planning and Zoning Commission serves in an advisory capacity to the City Council by making recommendations and decisions on a multitude of planning and zoning issues related to development activity in the City. These include consideration and action items pertaining to concept plans, preliminary plats, site plans, final plats, special use designations, zoning changes, Comprehensive Plan updates/amendments, etc. The Planning and Zoning Commission meets regularly every third Tuesday of the month at 6:00 p.m., as well as for specially called meetings and joint workshops with the City Council and other boards and commissions. The Planning and Zoning Commission is appointed by the City Council and is comprised of seven (7) regular members who serve two-year staggered terms.

If you are interested in serving on a Board or Commission, please fill out the attached application and submit it to City Hall. Please return your application to the attention of Stephanie Nichols, City Secretary (101 Bascom Road, Whitehouse, Texas 75179, or by email to snichols@whitehousetx.org). All applications will be forwarded to the City Council for review.
